The Byron Fire District is permitted, under Federal Law, to make the following uses or disclosures of your PHI without your authorization.

This notice applies to information and records we have about your health, health status, and the health care and services you received from Byron Fire Protection District.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PHI ABOUT YOU

Treatment We may use your PHI to provide you with medical treatment. For example, we may disclose your PHI to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other health care providers or personnel who are involved in taking care of you.

Payment We may use and disclose PHI to bill and collect payment for the treatment and services you receive from us. For example, we may need to provide your health plan or insurance company with information about a treatment or service we performed for you.

Health Care Operations We may use and disclose PHI in the course of performing activities called "health care operations". For example, we may use your PHI to perform business management and general administrative activities, including managing our activities related to complying with HIPAA Privacy Rule. Treatment Alternatives We may tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Required By Law We may use and disclose PHI as required by federal, state, or local law, as long as any disclosure complies with the law and is limited to the requirements of the law. Public Health Activities We may use and disclose PHI to public health authorities or other persons authorized to carry out certain activities related to public health, such as to report disease, injury, birth, or death, or to report child or elderly abuse or neglect, or to notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease in order to control the spread of the disease.

Abuse, Neglect, or Domestic Violence We may disclose PHI in certain cases to proper government authorities if we reasonably believe that a patient has been a victim of domestic violence, abuse or neglect.

Health Oversight Activities We may disclose PHI to a health oversight agency in connection with audits, investigations, inspections, and other activities it undertakes to monitor the health care system, government health care programs and compliance with certain laws.

Lawsuits and Other Legal Proceedings We may use and disclose PHI when required by a court or administrative tribunal. Law Enforcement Under certain conditions, we may disclose PHI to law enforcement officials for the purpose of reporting or investigating criminal activity.

Law Enforcement Under certain conditions, we may disclose PHI to law enforcement officials for the purpose of reporting or investigating criminal activity.

Coroners, Medical Examiners, Funeral Directors Under certain conditions we may disclose PHI to any of the above professionals for the purpose of investigation of your case.

Organ and Tissue Donation Under certain circumstances, we may use or disclose PHI in order to facilitate an organ, eye or tissue donation, and transplantation.

Research With permission from an Institutional Review Board, we may be permitted to use and disclose your PHI for research purposes. We may also discuss limited portions of your PHI, if we receive written assurances that the recipient will safeguard the information.

To Avert Serious Threat to Health or Safety We may use or disclose PHI about you in limited circumstances when necessary to prevent a threat to the health and/or safety of a person or the public.

Specialized Government Functions We are permitted to disclose PHI for certain military and veteran activities, for national security and intelligence activities, for health or safety of people in correctional institutions, and for certain public benefit programs. Disclosures Required by HIPAA Privacy Rule We are required to disclose PHI to the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services when requested by the Secretary to review our compliance.

Workers Compensation We may disclose PHI as authorized by workers compensation laws or other similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment We may disclose PHI to people involved in your care or payment for your care if we have a verbal agreement, or if you have the opportunity to object but do not. If you are not present or unable to consent or object, we may exercise professional judgment in determining if disclosure of PHI is in your best interests.

All other uses and disclosures of PHI about you, that are not mentioned above, may only be made with your written authorization.
